This End User License Agreement

This End User License Agreement ("Agreement") is an agreement between Company, Inc. ("Company," "we," "us" or "our") and you or the entity that you represent for the [NAME OF SOFTWARE] software (the "Software"). PLEASE READ THIS AGREEMENT CAREFULLY. IT CONTAINS IMPORTANT TERMS THAT AFFECT YOU AND YOUR USE OF THE SOFTWARE. BY INSTALLING, COPYING OR USING THE SOFTWARE, YOU AGREE TO BE BOUND BY THE TERMS OF THIS AGREEMENT. [3] IF YOU DO NOT AGREE TO THESE TERMS, DO NOT INSTALL, COPY, OR USE THE SOFTWARE. [4] IF YOU ARE ACCESSING OR USING THE SOFTWARE ON BEHALF OF ANY ENTITY OR OTHERWISE IN PERFORMANCE OF SERVICES FOR ANY ENTITY, YOU REPRESENT AND WARRANT THAT YOU ARE AUTHORIZED TO ACCEPT THIS AGREEMENT ON SUCH ENTITY'S BEHALF, THAT ACCEPTANCE OF THIS AGREEMENT AND USE OF THIS SOFTWARE WILL NOT VIOLATE ANY AGREEMENT YOU HAVE WITH SUCH ENTITY, AND THAT SUCH ENTITY AGREES TO INDEMNIFY YOU AND COMPANY FOR VIOLATIONS OF THIS AGREEMENT. 1. From the Licensee's perspective, it is important that the actual entity which owns or controls the software is identified as the Company and the party who will be using the software is identified as "you". [3] To ensure the users are legally bound by the terms, the EULA must be presented in a manner that forms a legally enforceable contract. You want to ensure that the user has notice of the EULA and affirmatively or implicitly agrees to the terms. The preferred EULA is a clickwrap license, where the EULA is presented to the user who clicks a button to indicate the user read and agrees to be bound by the terms of the agreement presented. Other methods of user acceptance of the EULA terms include active steps taken by the user, such as installation, copying, or use. Because users may not read the entire EULA, the acceptance section should be in the beginning of the agreement to provide clear notice to the user prior to any user action. Some software marketplaces or websites will provide links to the EULA without affirmative acceptance, but courts have not uniformly found these licenses to be enforceable. [4] An opt-out provision is included, alerting the user that not installing, copying or using the software will not bind them to the agreement. [5] User rep and warranty that the user has the right to authorize acceptance of the agreement is included in this section. License Limitations Section 1 states the entirety of your rights with respect to the Software, and we reserve all rights not expressly granted to you in this Agreement. Without limiting the foregoing, you will not do, or authorize or permit any third party to do, any of the following: (a) distribute, sub-license, sell, assign, or otherwise transfer or make available the Software; (b) use the Software for any purpose other than the Permitted Purpose; (c) reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble or otherwise attempt to discover or re-create the source code for the Software [11]; (d) modify, adapt, alter, improve or create any derivative works of the Software; (e) connect the Software with any other online services or use the Software in conjunction with other software or services not provided by or permitted by Company [in connection with the Company Services]; (f) remove, circumvent or create or use any workaround to any copy protection or security feature in or relating to the Software; or (g) remove, alter or obscure any copyright, trademark or other proprietary rights notice on or in the Software.[12] other potential users, will often grant nonexclusive, non-sublicensable, non-transferable licenses to user. EULAs commonly limit the license to only those uses which are specified. The EULA will also vary by content and services. For instance, some software is installed and used, but other software may provide content that is refreshed regularly (news, e-commerce).
